

For Immediate Release

Indiana Prison Hosts Limbless Motivational Speaker Nick Vujicic

Indianapolis, Indiana (May 20, 2015) - World renowned motivational speaker to give a live talk at the Correctional Industrial Facility on Thursday May 21, 2015.

Nick Vujicic born with tetra-amelia syndrome, a rare disorder characterized by the absence of arms or legs, travels the globe to prove that every life can have purpose and meaning. Faced with countless challenges and obstacles, God gave Nick the strength to surmount what others might call impossible. To date, he has shared his story with over 1 billion people.

Nick will be speaking in person at the Correctional Industrial Facility located at 5124 Reformatory Road from 830-930am eastern. This message will be streamed to other facilities via internet connections live at 8:30a and replayed at 1:30p.

Any members of the media wishing to attend the program please contact the Correctional Industrial Facility using the contact information below so arrangements can be made for your attendance.

Learn More about Nick at www.lifewithoutlimbs.com

Stay Connected to the Indiana Department of Correction

- Find us online: www.in.gov/idoc
- Like us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/IndianaDOC
- Follow us on Twitter: www.twitter.com/IndianaDOC
- Watch us on YouTube: www.youtube.com/IndianaCorrections

Media Contact:

Matthew Worthman
Executive Assistant
Correctional Industrial Facility
Tel: 765/778-8011 ext.1250
Fax: 765/778-0924
email: mworthman@idoc.in.gov